

June Newsletter

ALLLRIIGHHTYY THENNN...

We hope everyone is fairing during the craziest part of the surveying season and not ready to explode like the little red guy in Angry Birds. But if you are welcome to the club friend.. Go grab a beer, a soda, or a matcha. Whatever you're into and CHILL. We like to have fun here!

Speaking of fun!

A podcast you didn't know that you needed until now.. Between the Stakes is a podcast for Young Surveyors hosted by Young Surveyors. Episodes dive into the topics that matter most to the next generation and did we mention, it's not PG... Whether you're navigating your early career or expanding your expertise, this podcast offers practical insights, real-world experiences, and conversations that happen between the stakes. 😊

First episode is to drop soon! Check it out on Podbean.

The Between the Stakes Podcast | National Society of Professional Surveyors

& We started doing this thing..

You know where we recognize young surveyors for their participation. We know.. Everyone gets a participation award these days. But it's fun!! 😊

Member Spotlight form has been added to the site!! What is this form you say?!? Well, do you know someone who deserves a pat on the back? Tell us who and why and we will highlight them in our monthly membership spotlight. [NSPS YSN members only, sorry not sorry]

Become a volunteer - NSPS Young Surveyor's Network

But wait there's more...

These lovely newsletters that you love ooohh-soooo much are now available on thee webbiepage. Check 'em out and share!! News | nspsysn

Last but not least,

Marcus Schmitt, PLS attended the 2026 FIG Congress in Cape Town, South Africa at the end of May. In the article below, he shares his overall experience and explains why getting involved at the international level is beneficial for our community.

The Future We Want_ A Young Surveyor's Journey to South Africa.pdf

Marcus serves as the FIG representative of the NSPS Young Surveyors Network, but also as the Vice Chair of the FIG Young Surveyors Network.

Well, that is it for this month's Newsletter. Don't forget to grab matcha tea and take a break during this busy season!

Until next time..